HE INSPECTS GOVERNOR MORTON'S FARM, VISITS A CHURCH FAIR AND MAKES A POLITICAL

SPEECH AT A NON-PARTISAN RECEPTION. Upper Red Hook, N. V., Aug. 19 .- At 2 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Perrine, their hosts, left Upper Red Hook in a covered wagon to drive over to Ellerslie, Governor Morton's home 7th them went the Misses Perrine and a number of friends in vehicles and on bicycles. Others joined them along the road, and by the time Ellerslie was ched the procession was quite formidable. The route was through Red Hook, or the lower village, past the estates of John Jacob Astor, John Armcoast the carrier and other persons of wealth, and brough Rhinecliff to Governor Morton's stock Mr. Bryan and his friends inspected the stable and the dairy houses under escart of Govener Morton's superintendent, who had been instructed from Albany by the Governor's private secretary, Colonel Ashley W. We appear here altegether in an impromptu gathering. We did not know, two or three hours ago, that we were to be recipients of the magnificent horor which is conferred upon us to-night. It gives me great pleasure to bid Mr. and Mrs. Bryan welcome to the village of Rhinebeck—a pleasure that is shared by my fellow-citizens by reason of the high cities for which he is a candidate. Many centuries ago, it was said that to be a Roman was greater than to be a king, and it can be said to-day that to be President of the United States is to be greater than to be either a Roman or a king. Irrespective of either party or other considerations we extend to you a hearty welcome.

To this Mr. Bryan replied:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: I think that I can go further even than the chairman of this impromptu meeting. He says that to be the Fresident of the United States is to be greater than to be a Roman or a King. But few can be Fresident, and I rejoice that I live in a land where to be a citizen is greater than to be a king in any nation on earth. I rejoice that I live in a land where those who, for a time being, exercise authority and derive that authority from the consent of the governed, and do not rule by right divine. In this land, whether we live along the Hudson or on the Western prairies, we stand upon a common plane, and we participate in a kovernment which represents us all. We may belong to different parties, but I trust I may be able to express the easire of each of you as well as of myself when I say that we ought to belong at all times to that party which in our judgment will enable us best to serve our country. Parties are instruments, not ends. They are the means we use to secure that which we believe to be best for us, for our families and for our fellows.

Issues arise from time to time, and it is the duty of every citizen who loves his country and who appreciates the responsibilities which rest upon him to ludy each issue as it arises. I am not here to-night o make you a political speech. I am in your midst to rest, but I cannot withstand the temptation at this intered to beg that you will study, if you have not done there are many who have regarded our position as the rare are many who have regarded our position on the money question, the position taken by the bicage Convention, as entirely wrone, and they seak of the silver sentiment as a source of disags. I want to beg you, my friends, to believe that there can be heave could, and we honestly believe that there can be permenent, no general prosperity in this country and that it is going to give us an advantage over superbody else. I have been charmed with the beauty that commends them, but I beg you when you study this question to remember that those who, instead of occupying these magnificent places, must tol all day under the summer sun, have just as much interest in the money question as any-body else. Remember that this question cainnot be viewed from the standpoint of any class of people. It reaches every man, weman and child in the land, and you should make your view broad enough to comprehend them all, because I believe I speak the truth when I say that the prosperity of those who tol and that you cannot have a financial policy which brings distress to those who create wealth, without in the end reaching those who rest upon these tollers, and more than that you cannot have a policy which brings prosperity to the masses without that prosperity proving of benefit to all mankind. I beg you that in your consideration of this question you will study the interests of all, and not merely the interest of those who may be permanently benefited by the rise in the value of a dollar, and when you have made up your mind I desire seach of you to feel that you have the right to express your own view. The ballot was not given in order that one man should compel others to tote with him or purchase their voices. It was given in order that each man might make his ballot represent a freeman's will, and then when each one, studying as he will and voting as he likes, expresses himself, we make a majority, and then we all support the one who is elected and hold up his hands while he administers for us the four mind. WAITING FOR SOMETHING TO TURN UP. HARD WORK OF THE PEOPLE IN THE HOTEL

BARTHOLDI HEADQUARTERS TO KEEP BUSY. In the expectation of William P. St. John's return to his place in the Hotel Bartholdi on Saturday his assistants in the Democratic headquarters there made an effort yesterday to impart some cheerfulness to the appearance of things. The were no callers yesterday except Senator Stewart of Nevada. Those in charge of the headquarters, owever, sat at their desks, scattered a few papers around, splashed some ink on them and practised to acquire a business air which would make the roper impression on the treasurer who pays the freight and who will be back from Fire Island on Saturday morning. The typewriter removed the nothing to write regarding the progress of the Democratic campaign. One official apologized for the apathetic condition of affairs by explaining hat the committee at Washington is slow in ar ging the work for the campaign.

Senator Stewart did not stay long at the headquarters. He had little to say as he went away ut said that he would return to-day. He added hat he would go back to Washington in a week. No one at the Democratic quarters had any opinion to express regarding the great demonstra tion evoked by W. Bourke Cockran's speech it that Mr. Bryan intended to speak again in New York was revived, the campaign workers denied that any official statement had been made about the candidate's intention. They said that they had heard nothing from him about it, and no in-formation whatever could be given by them about their candidate's movements.

Senator Butler had another conference with Senator Jones this morning, which is understood to have been more satisfactory and prolonged than those which have preceded it. The two chairmen discussed plans of action until the last moment, Mr. Butler even going to the station with Mr. Jones prior to his aking the train for Chicago. Afterward Senators Butler and Faulkner had a long talk, the nature of

Unless the wishes of Chairman Butler and the men bers of the Executive Committee are set aside, Mr. Watson, Populist candidate for the Vice-Presidency, will not be officially informed of his nominaing to make any specific statements on the subject said that a failure to inform would not be unusu for the reason that the Populists had never yet informed their candidates.

Now that the committee has decided upon Washington as the headquarters, Chairman Butler's next the small rooms now occupied being entirely inade quate. ## FOR THE TAMMANY PRIMARIES

The Tammany Executive Committee is expected and issue calls for the primaries and district con-Convention which is to be held in Buffalo on September 16. Leaders of the organization are anxious to send a solid delegation in favor of indorsing the Chicago platform and ticket, but in some of the Assembly districts there may be difficulty in selecting such delegates. Although the Executive Committee took action to indorse the platform and ticket of the Chicago Convention, it is known that many Tammany men were opposed to such action and will be brought into line with difficulty.

It is understood that there will be no Tammany mass-meetings to indorse Bryan and Sewall until after the State Convention, and the Tammany County, Congress and Assembly conventions to nominate candidates will not be held until October. Chicago platform and ticket, but in some of the As-

A STIFF FIGHT IN VIRGINIA

Washington, Aug. 19.-General James D. Brady, one of three prominent Republicans appointed by the National Committee to have full control of the campaign in Virginia, to-day called at the Congressional Headquarters and had a consultation with Chairman Babcock. He arranged for a beavy consignment of literature to be placed at the disposal of the committee in Richmond for distribution throughout the State. General Brady says the Republicans are greatly encouraged by the outlook in Virginia, and he feels confident that fully 30 per cent of the Democratic voters will repudiate the nomination of Bryan.

Ex-Governor Cameron, of Virginia, passed through the city en route to Petersburg, where he will open a campaign in favor of a sound-money Democratic ticket. He said: "I believe the Bryan Democratic ticket. He said: "I believe the Bryan and Sewall ticket will be defeated, and in that event I can see no future for the extreme sliver men, who now have centrol, except in the control of the Populist party. The sound-money Democrats will remain as the nucleus about which the party will rebuild itself. I consider the nomination of a third ticket as an absolute necessity, if the party is to remain in existence."

STATE DEMOCRACY MEMBERS MEET

About forty members attended the meeting of the the headquarters in West Twenty-third-st. last night. In the absence of Chairman Fairchild and Vice-Chairman Scott, Roger Foster presided. A motion was made and adopted that the chairman appoint a committee of five, to report at a meeting to be held at the headquarters next Monday, with power to arrange for the election of delegates to the State Convention, which was called by the Democratic Party Reform Organization, and with power to issue such calls as they may deem necessary for such election of delegates.

Colonel R. G. Monroe, Wallace MacFarlane, John Byrne, Maurice S. Power and Roger Foster constitute the committee appointed.

PROHIBITION STATE CONVENTION. THE RAINES LAW SEVERELY CONDEMNED IN THE PLATFORM.

Syracuse, Aug. 19.- The Prohibition State Convention for the nomination of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor began in the Alhambra in this city to-day with a meagre attendance of delegates. It was called to order at 10:15 by Dr. Mitchell Downing, of Foughkeepsie, chairman of the State Committee, who introduced Mr. and Mrs. Beverldge, of Nebraska, the Prohibition singers. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. A. Hoyt, of Schuyler County, after which Prancis E. Baldwin, of Elmira, was elected tem-porary chairman. Hale Johnson, the Vice-Presidential candidate, addressed the convention. tion was made permanent Professor Dickie, chairman of the National Committee, then addressed the delegates. The platform, which had been prepared by the committee of five, of which c. J. Hull, of Buffalo, was chalrman, was submitted to the convention and adopted. It speaks of the Raines law as follows:

(4) because for the first time in New-York State it legalizes the sale of liquor for leverage purposes on Sunday.

The woman suffragists, who did not succeed in getting their plank into the platform, were mollified by a resolution in which woman suffrage was favorably passed upon. An attempt was made by several Populist-Prohibitionists to introduce a plank condemning trusts and monopolies, but they did not succeed. Chairman Baldwin made a strong appeal for funds with which to carry on the campaign. He said that $12,000 would be required for this purpose. Of this amount, $2,000 was raised this afternoon.

This evening a mass-meeting was held in the Al-hambra. There was rather a slim attendance. Speeches were made by Hale Johnson and Samuel Dickey. The nominations will be made to-morrow morning.

REED SPEAKS IN PORTLAND.

A CHEERFUL, HOPEFUL SPEECH TO HIS FELLOW-TOWNSMEN.

HE SAYS HE WOULD BE SATISFIED WITH HIS SET A GOOD EXAMPLE.

Portland, Me., Aug. 19 .- The Lincoln Club had an auspicious flag-raising to-night, opening the where another flag was unfurled as the procession passed. They went on to the house of T. B. Reed, in Deering-st., where the band played and Mr Reed came out and spoke as follows:

Gentlemen of the Lincoln Club and Fellow-Citizens: I beg to assure you that I have a high appreciation of the compliment of this visit, but I must say that no compliment to myself alone, even from so good a source as the Lincoln Club, would have brought me in here this evening, had not I something to say to you to-night. What I shall say to you will be no part of the campaign of education, for I think that by this time the Lincoln Club knows it all daughter. You are not, however, thee a silver man of my acquaintance who knows it all about the silver question and something more daughter).

I come to bring you words of cheer, encouragement and exhortation. In the political affairs of this Nation Maine is at important State, and has been so since 1840, and will continue to be so. We are not like Oregon, the first State to speak, which gives forth its utterance before public opinion has had time to become fixed, nor like Vermont, which is utterly steadfast; nor like Alabama, where a fair expression of public mind cannot be had, and where an honest election is not even a memory. We speak in the midst of the fight, and the thought and determination of our people is representative of the sentiments of the people of the United States, for we have sent our sons into all parts of the Nation, and what they say in September they will say louder in November.

Here in this district we have a plain case. The candidate who has been nominated by the Democratic party is an estimable genileman, and he has stated plainly where he is and you know where you are. I am not personally particular about a larger majority (Laughter.) I have in the past been satisfied with what you have given me. But the country looks to you to say the right thing, and say it louder. (Cheers.) We are not fighting any losing battle. (Cheers.) We are not fightin

AN ACCIDENT AT ERIE BASIN.

THE FREIGHTER POLYNESIA SLIPS IN DRYDOCK-SHOCK RESEMBLES AN EARTHQUAKE.

While the Hamburg-American Line freight steamship Polynesia was being placed in drydock at the Erie Basin about 6 o'clock last evening, the keelson block, which was her main support, slipped and the vessel's bottom crashed down upon the inches, but the immense weight of the steamer caused a shock which was felt for a long distance around. People living in the neighborhood thought that an earthquake had occurred. They ran out of the shaking of the earth. One man, who lives four blocks from the Basin, said afterward that It seemed to him that the earth sank an inch and hen rose again. The dock is not believed to have been seriously damaged by the accident. The exact extent of the damaccident the officials of the Erie Basin closed the gates and refused to allow any one except the employes in the yard. It was discovered, however, that when the Polynesia fell a large gang of men were working in the dock, and they were placed in great Ganger by the accident. So far as could be found out, Ganger by the accident. So far as could be found out, however, none was seriously injured. The workmen were under the direction of Alexander MacGilverey.

Last night it was said that there was danger of the Polynesia toppling wholly against the side of the dock and causing further damage. The vessel was temporarily propped up, however, and a big gang of workmen was kept at work on her all night in the hope of completing the repairs on her, so that the water might be let into the dock as early as possible and the danger averted.

The Polynesia was sent to drydock to have her bottom, which had become foul, scraped and painted. The watchman at the Eric Basin last night allowed himself to say, apparently against his will, that it was hoped to hurry the work so that it might be completed some time to-day. If that was done it was expected that the temporary props which supported her would hold.

The men who went out have no grievance except the failure of the management to pay them, and say they would go back at once if the money should be supplied. This they do not consider probable, however, as for some time they have been having trouble in obtaining their pay.

In the manager's office it is said that the trouble comes from the failure of the silver syndicate, which negotiated to buy a controlling interest in the paper, to put up the money. Mr. Noble, of the Empire and Greneble hotels, the proprietor of "The Mercury," shortly after the Chicago Convention was approached by James F. Graham, who, on behalf of a free-silver syndicate, contracted to purchise 51 per cent of the interest in it. A very small first payment was made to seal the transaction, but the promised second payment has not been forthcoming. It does not seem to be known in the office whether the syndicate has abandoned the pian of taking the paper or will manage to raise the necessary money later. It is said that William P. St. John and Senators Stewart and Jones, of Nevada, are in the syndicate.

DEATH OF FILEMAKER.

Galveston, Tex., Aug. 19.-Filemaker, the brated horse which held the world's record for high jumping, died here last night from inflammation of the bowels. Filemaker was seventeen hands and three-quarter inches high and was fourteen years old. He made his record by vaulting a fence seven feet seven inches high. He could do seven feet three inches with ease. Only one horse ever competed against him, and that was Rosebery, which was killed in the attempt. Filemaker came here with his owner, Mme. Marnette, who purchased him in 1820 for $10,000. The horse since that time has made $200,000 for his owner, and a standing stake of $5,000 was up that his record could not be beaten.

THE EAST RIVER BRIDGE COMMISSION.

CHANGES IN PLANS FOR THE NEW-YORK TOWER -MONEY BADLY NEEDED.

Plans for the New-York tower of the new East River Bridge were presented by the engineer, Mr. Buck, at a meeting of the Bridge Commisssion, at No. 49 Chambers-st., yesterday, and it was an-nounced that he had thought it necessary to make several changes in the original plans. The Bridge Commission did not accept the plans, but referred them to Commissioners Baird and Reeves for investigation and report.

The Bridge Commission is badly in need of money on account of the failure to sell city bonds on on account of the failure to sell city founds on Monday. The New-York and New-Jersey Boring Company wants the $5,000 due for making the East River horings, but there is no money in slight to pay the bill, which was audited several weeks ago. The representative of the company yesterday called the attention of the Commission to the fact that the company had to raise money to pay its employes, but he was told that the Controller could pay the company only after the money could be raised by the sale of honds. It was said that Brooklyn had paid for the borings on the Brooklyn side of the river.

MEDICAL SCIENCE IN PARIS.

OBSERVATIONS MADE BY DR. D. B. ST. JOHN

ROOSA IN HIS RECENT VISIT. Among the passengers who arrived yesterday or the Majestic was Dr. D. R. St. John Roosa, the wellknown New-York physician. Dr. Roosa has been abroad about three months, and with the exception of a few days' stay in London he has passed the whole of the time in Paris and its neighborhood. As is Dr. Roosa's usual custom in his visits to Eu professional observation. While in Paris he was a frequent attendant at the hospitals, and carefully noted the systems and practices of the medical institutions in the French capital.

To a Tribune reporter who sow Dr. Roosa at his pressed great admiration for the general routine and management of the French hospitals. Republic came into existence, when political enthusiasm had sufficiently subsided to allow scientists to their attention to study. Dr. Roosa said, physicians and surgeons had made great strides in their profession in France. He did not hesitate to say that American doctors would learn much that was beneficial in the interests of their profession by visiting the French hospitals, and gave it as his pinion that the doctors attached to these hospitals were among the best in Europe. Dr. Roosa was cially attracted by the thorough training given to the mule nurses in the Parisian institutions de voted to this purpose, and, commenting upon the fact that the hospitals of France were State-aided. said he considered this system vastly more ad ntageous than that which prevails in America d England for the control and support of hos

Dr. Roosa added that he had been received with every courtesy by his professional brethren on the other side, and that every facility for observing and studying the hospitals and the treatments employed in Paris had been afforded him.

The youngsters, who were probably in a tunnel for the first time in their lives, could not comprehend it. Some were frightened, and clung to the arms of the seats. "Is dis decountry?" one poor little fellow asked. His ignorance was pathetle rather than laughable. Then a hard-headed little Irishman near by brought things down to a practical basis. "Wor's de matter wid de glim?" he shouted. "Light her up?" As they got further into the tunnel, and the rumbiling sounded louder against the rocky sides, and everything seemed mysterious and awful, a silence fell upon the crowd Once a hoarse whisper came from a boy in the back of the car. "Say, look out fer de bogyman?" Just as the little 'Fresh Airs' were getting used to the new experience the train shot out into the daylight, and a chorus of "Ahsi" and Ohs!" greeted the reappearance of the sun.
